

Ready to begin your Wild West Adventure in Wyoming?

Campus Ministry Internship Opportunity

United Presbyterian Church

Laramie, Wyoming

United Presbyterian Church (UPC) in Laramie, Wyoming is seeking a full time (40+ hours/week) Campus Ministry Intern for the 2016-2017 school year. The position will begin in August 1st, 2016 and run through June 30th, 2017. The intern will work to expand our efforts with C4, our church's college ministry for the University of Wyoming, and will also provide support for other church ministries.

Successful candidates for this position will have received their college degree within the last five years, have a strong personal faith in Jesus Christ, and have a strong commitment to social ministry. The intern will be provided with room and board and a $1000/month stipend. The intern is expected to fundraise $2500 to help support their ministry experience.

UPC is located in scenic Laramie, Wyoming, a college town nestled between two mountain ranges in southeastern Wyoming. In addition to a vibrant college environment, Laramie provides unparalleled opportunities for outdoor experiences including downhill skiing, cross-country skiing, snow shoeing, hiking, rock climbing, and more. UPC is directly across the street from the campus of the University of Wyoming and currently supports a tightly-knit college ministry. We believe an intern would dramatically increase the reach of our ministry, and are excited to host a dynamic intern with a heart for ministry.

For more information, please contact Rev. Jason Harshberger at upclaramie@gmail.com or 307-742-2061.